

Lead Line Class (Greenhorn) - Ages 18 and under may participate in this class; however, rider may not participate (riding independently) in any other division. Also, once rider leaves Greenhorn division, they cannot re-enter the division until next rodeo. Rider may be led by someone on foot or on horseback. Parent/Adult Assistant must be in contact with the horse the entire time.

Lead Line Barrels - Same rules apply as the other barrel division except rider may be led by parent/adult assistant on foot or on horseback. Parent/Adult Assistant must be in contact with the horse the entire time. Multiple riders may ride the same horse in the Lead Line Barrels.

Lead Line Poles- Same rules apply as the other pole division except rider may be led by parent/adult assistant on foot or on horseback. Parent/Adult Assistant must be in contact with the horse the entire time. Multiple riders may ride the same horse in the Lead Line Poles.

Peewee Goat Dogging - The goat will be staked on a 10 ft cotton rope. Contestants will start behind a designated line. Time will begin when contestant crosses the line. The contestant will go to the goat and flip it, all four feet must be horizontal to the ground and pointing in the same direction with the contestant's hands on the goat when contact with the ground is made. Contestant must keep hands on goat until flag is dropped.

Greenhorn Goat Tail Untying- A goat will be staked on a 10-foot cotton rope. Contestant will start behind a designated line. Time will begin when contestant crosses the line. When the ribbon is removed from the goat's tail, contestant will signal end of run to judges by throwing both hands in the air and time will stop. To qualify a legal run, the contestant must remove all of the ribbon from the goat's tail.